OUR BOYS

Our boys! Today in cap and gown,
You sing your songs and say goodby.
Come dawn, and you in khaki brown
Beneath the flag go marching by.
How dire the need, how great the task,
That snatches you from books and play,
Brave ones, you scarcely pause to ask,
Heads high, eyes front, you march away.

—FREDERIC G. KENNEDY

JANUARY CLASS WILL

☆ ☆ ☆ ☆ ☆ ☆

WE, THE graduating seniors of the January '43 class of North Central high school, being of legal credit standing and proved of sound mental qualities by a committee of faculty members, do make, publish and declare on this January 18, 1943, our last will and testament, hereby revoking any and all ill feelings heretofore demonstrated toward the underclassmen.

Pat Ewing bequeaths her mechanical feet and pigtails to Miss Pinkham for the next operetta.

Tom Smith leaves that position of head drum major to keen competition; namely, Jimmy Johnson and Forrest Henderson.

Valere Johnson leaves North Central minus one more of those gorgeous blonds.

Howard Merriman leaves his twin sister to receive his diploma because he took his leave early to join the United States navy. Mr. Nygaard falls heir to Howard's guppies.

The ability to "get her men" Priscilla Haroldson rightly hands over to Mary Lou Cleave.

Dick Turner is leaving his place on the traffic squad to some other lucky fellow.

Jack Ross leaves behind Peg Leach; but sorry, fellas, she isn't mentioned in his will.

Those straight A twins, Jean Williams and Charlotte Clarke, wisely leave an example for the underclassmen to follow.

The ability of Kay Grant to "go steady" is passed on to Adeline Trapp.

Bob White departs dreaming of orange blossoms and that attractive brunette at L. C.

Bev Abbey wills her Moscow weekends to any girl lucky enough to obtain gas to get there.

That "sophisticated air" Lucille Bonin passes on to Dorothy Biallis.

Pat Perdue leaves her bashfulness to Joanne Thompson.

To all those green frosh goes the dancing ability of Bill Davenport.

Bob Fraser presents his "gift of gab" to Dick Nygaard.

Eudora Eundry bestows her reputation of being a "whiz" on the typewriter to Betty Cox.

Lois Beck vacates her seat in Mr. Chandler's room for whoever wants it.

Kathryn Compton wills her big blue eyes to Juanita Bryan.

Gordon Watt wills his desire to see the football team win city championship to next fall's team.

Pat LeGrant leaves the social service department with a vacancy that will be hard to fill.

Marilynn Courtright leaves the halls of alma mater but takes her heart with her to send to the army (or has it already gone?)

John Mele leaves in a daze after writing boys' sports for The News. He willingly wills the job to the green little "newsies."

Fred Hoenes passes his experience to an aspiring frosh. Or is it that red hair that gets him by?

Bob Osterback leaves many teachers happier.

Gayle Fisher flits off in pursuit of Dick.

Lee Walker leaves his personality to the golf team.

Virginia Garske falls heir to Evelyn Westerman's night life.

Hazel Edgar bequeaths her A's to Elsa McMahon.

Harold Page drops his work and studies with a bang.

Mack Buyanovich cleans out his locker for a sweet 'lil frosh.

To those energetic gals on the tennis team goes Pat Hawley's ability to swing a tennis racquet.

Patty Carpy agrees to teach the hula to those girls who have been attempting to acquire the technique.

Don Henning agrees to share a portion of his ability to study to anyone interested.

Those curly brown locks of Betty Marks now belong to Shirley Brandt.

Bob Speck regretfully leaves room 115W. Don't you, Bob?

Gerry Dolan deposits her books at the bookroom with a shout of joy.

Mary Jarvis leaves her position as head "ad catcher" to the next patient little person who comes along.

Betty White's black hair is sent to those brunettes, Marjorie McHugo and Shirley Olson.

After the class play, Earline Reitzel sends her German accent with love and kisses to old Schnikelgruber himself.

JUNE CLASS WILL

★ ★ ★ ★ ★

WE, THE graduating seniors of the June '43 class of North Central high school, being of legal credit standing and proved of sound mental qualities by a committee of faculty members, do make, publish and declare on this May 31, 1943, our last will and testament, hereby revoking any and all ill feelings heretofore demonstrated toward the underclassmen:

Beatrice Piper leaves a few locks of her long hair to Mr. Chandler.

Bob Wayne leaves his experiments with sulfuric acid to the girl next to him in chemistry.

Evelyn Williamson bequeaths her expressive eyes to Tommy Hicks.

Carol Zahrlly bequeaths her poetry to the English department.

Cora West chooses to will her flashing smile to the best looking boy in the school. Wonder who he is?

Ed Walsh relieves the study hall roll checkers of one less worry.

Joy Wallingford wills her place on the ad staff to Patty Green.

John Johnson mails his diploma to Bob Ripley's "Believe It or Not" collection.

Mary Peterson passes on her "athletic stride" to Marjorie Scott.

Jack Wrinkle dedicates his one year of Spanish to the Army Air Corps with two more years of the language to suffer through.

Estelle Hanson leaves her Wednesday afternoons at the ice arena to Elsa McMahon.

Darrell Smith wills his physics experiments to Mr. Butler and Mr. Neuman with sincerest apologies.

Doug Volosing leaves for the psychopathic ward at one of the local hospitals. No offense, Doug, we know you only work there.

It is predicted that Matt St. Marie will leave his class pin to Jean Dower.

The library hopes Betty Voss will find someone as efficient as she to take her place.

Lucille Kreshel wills her spirit to take on the form of an angel so that she may always inhabit "Pink's Heaven."

To the English literature students goes Betty Reed's excellent book reports and literary background.

The reasoning powers of Jack Segesman go to Virginia Greenough.

Doug Wirsche leaves his "sixth period dark room technique" to Billy Thompson.

Derr Whetsler leaves the band a serious gap.

Ray McLellan leaves the chemistry room sulphur fumes to the great outdoors.

Beryl Shriver wills her home economics grades to Shirley Steffer.

James Perno leaves his modesty to Al Halbig.

Doris Read bestows her two little dimples to Bill Jacobson.

Velma Sabbe leaves Mr. Ramsey her test papers to be remembered by.

Betty Voelker's satin-smooth complexion goes to Rosemary Morgan.

Bill Sullivan's curly hair and good looks go to Dave Jensen.

Frances Robillard cleans out her locker for a new little frosh.

With fond adieu, Jim Smith leaves North Central minus one more male. How long can it last?

George Quimby leaves his shy manner to Buck "Wolf" Hill.

Juanita Murphy bequeaths her three-inch elfish haircut to blond little Jackie Bollman.

Milton Olson leaves hand in hand with Harriet Hoff.

Everyone knows to whom Barbara Slorah wills the month of June.

Bill McNutt leaves his arrangement of "Two o'Clock Jump" to Mrs. Dunphy.

The News staff hopes Ed Reberg will will to a conscientious person his job of carrying copy over to the print shop every week.

Betty Wisted leaves her "ticket selling line" to Miss Pinkham.

Gene Weller agrees to pass on to any frosh lad, his technique of "going steady" with Wynona Pernell through four years of school.

Wilda Seyler leaves third period speech class with an enthusiasm which amazes Mrs. Leonard.

Carolyn Nelson won't tell to whom she is giving her extra graduation picture, but it's rumored he's some pitchin's.

Ruth Riley "socks" a home run to next year's best girls' baseball team.

SENIORS

WOLVES!
OF COURSE THE ORGANIZATION
IS NOT EXCLUSIVE FOR THE SENIOR MALES, BUT THEY HAVE A HUGE MEMBERSHIP

JUST A BOY AT HEART -
OR JUST ANOTHER ONE OF THOSE LAZY SENIORS.

I SAID
WALK!

QUESTION: WHY ARE SCHOOL RULES MADE?
ANSWER: SO THAT
SENIORS CAN BREAK
THEM!

O BOY! LOOKIT, THOSE SENIOR
SIGHTS! PUT YOUR EYES
BACK IN BOYS - IO TO I THEY GO STEADY, OR ELSE
THEY'LL GIVE YOU
THAT SENIOR
SUPERIORITY
AIR.

SENIORS ARE EXPERTS AT WHIPPING UP SPLIT-SECOND EXCUSES - JUST ASK 'EM IF IT ISN'T HARD WORK TO KEEP FROM DOING WORK.

IF ANYONE BESIDES A
SENIOR POSSESSES THIS STRUT
IT'S STRICTLY A COINCIDENCE.

GIRLS PHOOEY!

SIGHT-SEERS!

ISN'T IT
AMAZING THE

THE NORTH CENTRAL NEWS

TWENTY-SIX years ago, in 1917, under the supervision of Ernest E. Green, The North Central News was born. It entered the world as a five-column monthly, later developing into a seven-column weekly. Last fall, as a war-time measure, the paper was cut to six columns.

The National Scholastic Press association voted the paper All-American in '36, '37, '38; and presented it with the Pacemaker award (one out of the 12 best high school papers in the nation) in '41. The News was selected as the most outstanding paper in the Northwest, by the Whitman College Press Club in 1940. A Quill and Scroll chapter was established in 1926.

Miss Mary McKenna is faculty adviser. Editors of The News for this year were: Fall, Helen Nygaard; spring, Ellen Tharp, Consuella DeBould. Associate Editors: Fall, John Mele, Barbara Slorah; spring, Fred Peterson. News Editors: Fall, Dorothy Wadsworth; spring, Gayle Nelson. Business Managers: Fall, Garth Young; spring, Consuella DeBould. Advertising Managers: Fall, Mary Jarvis; spring, Peggy Leach. Sports: Fall, Marilyn Taber, Dick Soth, John Mele; spring, Betty Chapman, Harold Lindberg. Circulation Managers: Fall, Fred Peterson, Tommy Hix; spring, Dave Jensen, Dean Cochran. Bookkeeper for the year was Eleanor Magnuson.

The News, one of the most successful projects featured at North Central, lends its support to lagging campaigns and has always supported activities of the school that need help. Sports, including football, baseball, tennis, basketball, track, etc., are covered thoroughly. The News also publicizes class plays, operettas and band concerts. This year, The News furnished the publicity for the stamp and bond drive to buy a jeep, sponsored by the senior A class.

VOX PUELLARUM

VOX PUELLARUM, meaning "Voice of the Girls," was organized in 1913 under the direction of R. G. Hargreaves, then principal of North Central and Miss Jessie Gibson, who in 1918 organized the Girls' League. The purpose of the Vox is to develop within the club, dramatic, literary, music and vocational tendencies.

Various activities are sponsored by the club throughout the year. A Thanksgiving and Christmas basket is prepared for a needy family. This semester a dancing class for boys was sponsored by the club.

Sophomore and junior girls having no grade below C are eligible to try for membership. At the end of each semester, the Vox award of $10 is given to a senior girl who has a good scholastic standing and who has overcome the greatest obstacles while attending North Central. The fall award was presented to Evelyn Davenport, January, '43.

THE BAND

"THE BELLE OF BAGDAD"

"THE Belle of Bagdad," the thirty-first annual operetta presented at North Central under the general directorship of C. Olin Rice, was given Dec. 4 and 5 in the school auditorium.

Leads for the operetta were: Carolyn Nelson, Mrs. J. Horace McCann; Dorothy Biallas, Elsa; Suzanne Allen, Anne; Areta Dorn, Zelinda; Juanita Bryan, Rose; Virginia Greenough, Lily; Bill Ennis, Ali Ben Mustapha; Don Wiley, Bob; Fred Hanne-man, Hassan El Carib; Wynona Pernel, Jewel; Jack Palmer, Bill; Doreen Schroeder, Henrietta Whipstitch; Eddie Powell and Merril Womach, Dick.

The story was as follows: Fair day in Bagdad is marked by the arrival of various visitors, among them Mrs. Horace J. McCann, the new American Consul, with her daughter, Elsa, and her daughter's friend, Anne. On being presented to the Caliph and his daughter, Jewel with some other friends, they learn that an assassin is abroad who carries a bomb concealed in a camera, and for this reason all persons with cameras are to be shot immediately.

Dick Taylor arrives by plane from Hollywood, accompanied by his two mechanics, Bob and Bill. They are looking for a girl known only as the Belle of Bagdad in order to engage her as a moving picture star. They hope to identify her by some small photographs which they carry, and also by the sacred amulet which she wears, but in order to make sure they bring a large camera with them to take pictures of all prospects. Dick meets Jewel, who welcomes him cordially, but the two mechanics meet Ali Ben Mustapha, the chief of police, who sees their camera and orders them to be executed forthwith. In order to escape Bill and Bob resort to disguise, first as dervishes, and afterwards as members of the Caliph's body guards. While in this latter disguise they capture the real assassin, and in return the Caliph orders Jewel to present Dick with the sacred amulet. This serves to identify her as the Belle. Bill and Bob are freed in time to couple with Elsa and Anne, while Henrietta Whipstitch finds solace in the companionship of Ali Ben Mustapha.

The sets were designed and painted by Betty Marks, Gwen Heydon, Dorothy Groom, Lynn Staples, Ruth VanAuken, Glen Michaels and Bob Shiffner under the supervision of Miss Ethel Ashley.

Construction work was done by Jack Henry, Dick Guest; Dan Crandall, Jeff Overholser, Shirley Stablein and Ernest Gerlack, members of the stage crew under the direction of Wayne Chapman.

Costumes were designed and made by the costume class under Miss Agnes Avent and Mrs. J. D. Youngman.

The dramatics was supervised by Grace Douglas Leonard and make-up done by the senior dramatics class.

Members of the chorus were: Sopranos: Hazel Edgar, Earline Reitzel, Betty Lou Wood, Perley Pry, Pat Lipscomb, Ruth Edson, Gaya Sapp, Helen Sherer, Marilyn Kingrey, Marie Couch and Marilyn Meister. Altos: Patience Schroeder, Althea Kaes-meyer, Patty Lanning, Gloria Pleiss, Shirley Wilson, Phyllis Springer, Muriel Large, Gerry Wolfe, Ruth Keeling and Lynne Staples.

Boys singing tenor were: Dick Zinnecker, Bob Schiffner, Gene Weller, LaVerne Kent, Merril Womach, Bill McNutt, Kenneth Russell, Phil Smith, Clyde Allen, Neil Allen. Bass: Tom Smith, Wally Erickson, Rodd Derr, Wayne Campbell, Bob Lyons, Eddie Ailor, Bob Sheehy, Bob Bresgal, Gordon Melcher and Manford Morris.

The orchestra members were: Violin: Jim Pitcher, Ladd Kafflen, Gordon Barr, Rita Woodward, Betty Morgan, Betty Hix, Juanita Leigh and Bob Chappell; cello: Muriel Doran; bass: Esther Buchanan; flute: Charlotte Clark; first clarinet: Marilyn Berggren; second clarinet: Dorothy Bradrick; first trumpet: Peggy Leach; second trumpet: Patty Green; horn: Aline Kanikeberg; trombone: Kathryn Becker and drums: Peggy Cromer. Evelyn Davenport and Marilyn Peterson played the piano.

Miss Elsa Pinkham directed the dances for the operetta. Areta Dorn was chairman of the dancing and assisting were: Shirley Brandt and Jane Sabiston.

ACTIVITIES

FAREWELL TO "BUCK"

COACH ARCHIE BUCKLEY, now a lieutenant (j. g.) in the Navy, left March 12 for Chapel Hill, North Carolina. Mr. Buckley was based there for indoctrination school before going into physical fitness or general duty.

Coach Buckley came to North Central in 1931. He has coached not only football

"Buck" pacing the baseball diamond.

A pal and a ready listener.

A friendly smile and greeting for all.

and baseball, but also basketball during his first years here.

When asked what football season he remembered most, Coach Buckley remarked, "The season of 1933 is especially outstanding. We lost the first two games but won the last four to tie for the championship. During this season the real North Central spirit was at its best. But this has been true during the whole time I have been here. I really believe it would not be possible to find a better type of youth to work with than I have had at North Central."

Mr. Buckley also acted as social studies teacher and will be remembered by the students of his classes as well as by the boys he coached. He was always an understanding teacher and a real friend. So until you come back again—"Good luck, Buck."

☆☆☆☆☆☆

ALTHOUGH the football season was anything but successful from the Indian standpoint, the North Central team gave a good account of itself in every game, never giving up the battle until the final gun. Until the Gonzaga Bullpups defeated the city champions, Rogers, 7-0, the Red and Black had been the only team to score upon the Pirate aggregation.

North Central participated in the annual Shrine contest and defeated their traditional rival, Lewis and Clark, 6-0.

Bob Weeks, N. C. end, was the only Indian to be chosen for the all-city first team.

BASEBALL

THE INDIANS took fourth place in the city league basketball season this year; but Ray Bloom, crack North Central guard, piled up 123 points for a new record during this season. Not only did he make the new record, but during a game with Central Valley, Ray racked up a total of 31 points for a new individual scoring record in one game. In other words Ray might be called a one-man team.

All but one of the games that North Central lost were decided by only two or three points, indicating that if the breaks had been with them they may have finished much higher than fourth place.

Lewis and Clark, North Central's old rival, again finished in the first position followed by the second place Pirates from Rogers high.

Standings	Wins	Losses
Lewis and Clark	10	0
Rogers	8	2
Gonzaga	5	5
North Central	4	6
West Valley	3	7
Central Valley	0	10

Early in the season, North Central entered a physical fitness tourney at Gonzaga gym. This tournament was comprised of teams from the city and the Inland Empire. In this tournament N. C. copped third place with Lewis and Clark taking first and Rogers second.

Frosh Finish Second

The freshman basketball club started its season very successfully after defeating all of the teams in the circuit at least once. They fell in defeat twice, once to Gonzaga and once to Rogers. They lost to Rogers by one point and to Gonzaga by two points.

Ditty and Hagle seemed to be the spark plugs of the team, each being first and second in regard to points scored in their games. By result of these wins and losses, the team came out in second place.

☆ ☆ ☆ ☆ ☆ ☆

BASEBALL at North Central at the beginning of the season looked very promising with four lettermen back. These boys being Ralph Anderson, Jerry Miller, Dick Nygaard and Bob Weeks. This year Archie Buckley, the usual coach of the baseball squad, enlisted in the navy, and Bob Barnard took over as the new mentor. With some tough breaks the team had bad luck with the pre-season games but as the season approached the squad was rapidly improving.

The pitching staff this year usually consisted of Miller, Taylor, and Weeks during the practice games with other schools. One advantage for North Central was the fact that a majority of their games were played on their own field.

THE track situation of North Central also had a promising outlook even though the squad was left with but one returning letterman, Cy Bare. During pre-season practice sessions many fast times were recorded. One asset to North Central this year was the arrival of Floyd Hansen, a distance runner from Pullman. This boy and another newcomer, Dick Eby, figured to be two of North Central's fastest runners and contenders for top points. Also outstanding was Harvey Williams, a junior, who vastly improved and helped many times in getting the Indians the points. During an interclass meet at the beginning of the season Harvey collected 16 points to be individual high scorer of the meet and help his team, the juniors, to win.

With these outstanding advantages to figure on North Central was a sure contender for the city track crown.

TENNIS

☆ ☆ ☆ ☆ ☆ ☆

THE outlook for the tennis team this year looked as good as any for North Central which is up to old standards as the Indians have captured the tennis crown in about every year they have played. This year with Jim Pitcher and Lewis Stephenson back the chances look exceptionally well for these boys are probably two of the best tennis players this school has turned out.

Jim Pitcher last year captured the singles title for the city, so there was no reason why the city titles shouldn't fall toward N. C. again this year. Other members of Coach Ernest L. Hix's team were: Dick Soth, Larry Nobles, Ray Bloom and Cliff Mast.

Tennis is now one of the best sports which can be taken up by the youth of today according to the army air corps. This sport gives the body varied forms of exercise and provides stamina.

GOLF

☆ ☆ ☆ ☆ ☆ ☆

GOLF at North Central has rapidly increasing in popularity during recent years. Several times some of the best golfers of the city have been organized at North Central.

North Central started golf competition in 1918 and has continued through the years. This year Coach Walter C. Hawes had three returning men from last years' squad. These boys were: Bob Lyons, Dick Olson and Bob Whorle. All of these boys showed ability last year and bolstered N. C.'s chances for a golf crown very much. Last year four men were graduated from the squad.

On the golf squad the boys received training in coordination, as well as healthful recreation.

COLOR GIRLS

TO KEEP up the school spirit and to back all student activities is the main theme of every Color Girl. The organization forms a cheering and color section at all games and marches in various parades throughout the year.

Each girl has the official uniform which consists of a black skirt, a red sweater with the Color Girls emblem and white shoes and anklets.

The members are girls who are in the ninth and tenth grade and are selected by their scholarship, attendance, health, cooperation in school activities and good citizenship.

They must have consent of their teachers and no grade below C.

Mrs. Gladys Dunphy, study hall teacher, has been adviser for the past three years. Each year a testing committee, appointed by Mrs. Dunphy, tests each girl for membership.

First Row: Norma Strong, Loraine Theiss, Joy Whennie, Lorna Milan, Fay Whipple, Marilyn Lincoln. Second Row: Patsy Durham, Shirley McElroy, Shirley

GIRLS' BADMINTON

☆ ☆ ☆ ☆ ☆ ☆

UNDER the direction of Miss Elsa Pinkham, head of the physical education department, the girls' badminton tournament proved to be one of the outstanding sports for girls this semester.

Carol Carpenter Whipple was the winner of the singles tournament while Shirley Murbach and Lorna Milam took the champion title in the doubles matches.

Badminton, like other girls' sports was open only to girls taking gym. The tournament started in December and the final games were played in January.

Badminton was an important part of the physical fitness program carried out in the girls' gym department as it provided an opportunity for extensive training in coordination and exercise.

The birdie was kept skimming rapidly back and forth over the net in this game, which is considered by experts to be one of the fastest of all sports.

Although badminton is similar to tennis and looks easy to play, it requires a great deal of intricate footwork. The ability to place shots so as to catch the opposing player off guard also adds to the intricacies of the game.

The girls learned these tips and many more by turning out for badminton and the singles tournament really provided some fast games.

GIRLS' GOLF

JOY Davis captained the North Central golfers during the fall semester while Beverly Tschirgi was captain for the spring semester. Dorothy Gemberling and Beverly Ulrich were the managers. The girls under the direction of Miss Wilhelmine Timm, coach of the team, took lessons from Neil Christian of Riverside golf course.

Each semester the girls had a tournament with Lewis and Clark. The golf class was part of the physical fitness program carried on at North Central. The girls turned out on Tuesdays and Thursdays during sixth period.

GIRLS' TENNIS

☆☆☆☆☆☆

FOREHAND, backhand, cut, lob, and smash were all familiar terms heard on the courts during the tennis season.

This season the team was divided into two groups, which were the A and B squads. Members of the A squad practiced after school and the B squad before school.

Senior A's graduating in June who were listed on the A squad and their number of years on the team were as follows: Donella Anderson, one year; Doris Bradbury, three years; Marilou Cappelen, two and one-half years; Peg Cromer, two years; Dorothy Groom; three years; Doris Leubner, one and one-half years; Gayle Nelson, three and one-half years; Mary Peterson, two and one-half years; Carol Carpenter Whipple, three years; Fay Whipple, two years; and Betty Wisted, three years.

Tennis managers were: Jo Smith, Marilyn Berggren, Patty Green; assistants, Colleen Wolfe and Elizabeth Fruin.

Miss Elsa Pinkham was the coach of the girls' team.

"KEEP'EM flying" could have been the motto of the girls' volleyball teams, with their patriotic names.

All games were played after school in the big gym under the direction of Miss Isabel McElwee, coach of the sport. At the first turnout of the season the captains and teams were chosen.

The teams and their captains were: The victorious WAACs, Captain Doris Johnson; the WAFs, Captain Vonna-Jean Patterson; the WAMs, Captain Carol Carpenter Whipple; the WAVES, Captain Mary Lou Nygaard; the WIRES, Captain Elyles Wahl; the SPARS, Captain Joyce Dawson.

With all teams evenly divided as to number and skill the girls had a fast and exciting season.

There is gladness in her gladness when she's glad, there is sadness in her sadness when she's sad, but the gladness of her gladness, nor the sadness of her sadness, is nothing to her madness when she's mad.

A married man adds: There is kicking in her kickness when she kicks, there is licking in her lickness when she licks, but the kicking of her kickness, nor the licking of her lickness, is nothing to her nixness when she's nix. There is crossing in her crossness when she's cross, there is glossing in her glossness of her gloss, but the crossness of her crossing, nor the glossness of her glossing, is nothing to her bossness when she's boss.

The time has finally come . . . this is goodbye. Time was when I thought I couldn't live without you, I needed your support in every way, but war is war and no time for one to quibble about personal loss. You've been through thick and thin with me, and never have you let me down. But now, I figure others are making the same sacrifice, and if they can, certainly I can, too. Others need you more now that war has struck, so I bid you farewell . . . I'll never forget as long as I live, I'll remember to my dying day that you were the best dog-gone girdle I ever had.—By Peggy Cromer.

THE 132 members of the North Central high school band, under the direction of Lowell C. Bradford, made over 39 appearances during the school year, including those made by the full band, concert band, pep band, brass band, quintet band, and miscellaneous soloists.

Appearances for the fall semester included nine for the full band, 15 for the brass band, ten for the pep band, five for the quintet, and two for miscellaneous soloists. The outstanding appearances were at the merry-go-round game with the Red Feathers, convocations, parades, games, civic functions, and radio broadcasts.

The spring season has been devoted largely to the 38th formal concert, April 2, and the pay convocation on April 1. Selections featured were: Shubert's "Unfinished Symphony"; De Rubertis' "Mardi Gras in New Orleans." The featured soloists included Bill McNutt, James Pitcher, Manford Morris, Bernard Wilson and Orin Stratton.

The pep band, under the direction of Bill

McNutt, Jerry Ingham, and Bernard Wilson played for convocations, basketball games, and civic affairs.

The concert band, together with the orchestra and choral groups, presented the ninth annual spring musical festival early in May.

The full band furnished the music for the playfield pageant on May 19, presented by the girls' physical education department under the direction of Miss Elsa Pinkham.

On April 15 and 16, 15 members of the band entered the "Ensemble Contest."

For the presentation of "Uncle Sam in Review," with a full company of supporting characters, the school won the merry-go-round trophy for the second consecutive year.

Those included in the band personnel for the spring were: Piccolo, Regg Armfield, Warren Deasy, Bill Ennis, Fred Franke, Dick Soth, Bill Thompson; oboe, Jack Holt, Vernon Moore; basoon, Larry Ellison, Claude Myhre; E flat clarinet, Harris Crampton; alto clarinet, Don Wiley; bass
